A blend of understandable explanations and real-life stories. "Why I Am a Lutheran explores the foundational teachings of the Christian church. In each chapter, Daniel Preus calls upon more than 20 years of pastoral experience to reveal Jesus as the center of the Christian faith. As he addresses central doctrines such as sin and grace, Law and Gospel, the person and work of Jesus Christ, worship, the Sacraments, and the office of the ministry, Preus keeps the focus on Jesus Christ--who is "always and only at the center of all Christian teaching."

Lutheran Questions Lutheran Answers Canongate U.S.

How would you respond to the question, "Why should I be Christian instead of Muslim, Hindu, or Buddhist?" In answering, you might focus on what Scripture teaches and what you believe - namely, the Gospel message. But the skeptics will press you for more. They will ask why a loving god allows evil in the world. They will promote science that supports Darwinian theories. They will challenge the reliability of Scripture. People don't often believe something just because someone says they should, especially when it comes to religion. But what if you answered, "You should be a Christian because Christianity is the only religion that can be proven to be true." And what if you had the evidence to support this powerful claim? In The Reason I Believe, author Allen Quist returns to a basic fact-based defense of Christianity. In doing so, he offers a wealth of compelling evidence for the truthfulness of Christianity, including the existence of God, the reliability of Scripture, and the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. Quist also presents a biblical response to the problem of evil and the scientific issues with Darwinism, equipping Christians to confidently respond to these common objections to their faith. After reading The Reason I Believe, Christians and skeptics alike will better understand why Christianity requires faith - just not a blind leap of faith.
